Continuing your professional development

There is a wealth of information, much of which is freely available, for colleagues to support their continued professional development. However locating targeted resources to meet a specific need can be difficult and time consuming.

Within this section of the repository we welcome contributions that support colleagues continued professional development, whether that be to develop their pedagogical practice, or to prepare for personal development opportunities, applications and accreditation such as Fellowship.

Welcoming contributions that support colleagues continued professional development:

- Webinar style recordings
- Presentations e.g. Power Point
- Short think pieces or personal reflections on practice
- Group or institutional approaches
- Exemplar resources which may links to active twitter posts, blog posts and websites
