#CreativeHE

Drawing together practice, scholarship and research this sub-group seeks to share strategies that develop and inform our understanding of Creativity in Education. (Please see <https://creativehecommunity.wordpress.com/> and the community space at <https://www.facebook.com/groups/creativeHE>)

The aim is to provide useful resources that support engagement in creative teaching and learning practices

Work may include but is not limited to:

- The identification of strategic and sustainable creative pedagogies
- Creative practices that facilitate active learning
- The use of creative, open communities and wider collaboration
