Ways into a conversation

The following questions are starting points, helpful prompts to begin sharing your perspectives on assessment with each other. Its not an exhaustive list so feel free to take the conversation where you want it to go!

*what's your name
and where do you
come from?*

*What can you see
out of your window?*

*A favourite
place to visit?*

oh,
HEY

*Favourite parts
of your job?*

Are you trying anything new in assessment?

Who has inspired your assessment practice recently?

Fast forward 5 years....
What will assessment in HE look like?

Tell me about the assessment demands in your discipline?

What assessment
challenges you are currently wrestling with?

Had any assessment
lightbulb moments?

What assessments have you enjoyed? Why?

What do you consider when developing an assessment?

Do we need to assess? If yes, why? If no, is there an alternative way?
